

Wavescape Surf & Ocean Festival to screen 32 films

The Wavescape Surf & Ocean Festival will be held at the Labia Theatre in Cape Town on 7-10 December 2017. This year, the festival will screen a record of 32 films, several of which are premieres.

The screenings will include the African premiere of Bunker77; the story of Clark Gable's son Bunker Spreckels, who was the heir to a massive fortune and became one of surfing's most infamous characters.

There is also Proximity, a series of conversations between the world's top surfers. The latest features Kelly, John John, Rasta, Stephanie Gilmore, Albee Layer and Craig Andersen.

Nathan Oldfield's film Church of the Open Sky is beautiful. I am African is a film about a Moroccan who dreams of surfing Skeleton Bay in Namibia and travels the length of Africa to do it.

List of all the films:

Proximity
The Jump
Biarritz Surf Gang
Given
Optimist
Paradigm Lost
Sea Wolf
Blue Road
Bezerke
Week up West
I am African
Scarlet's Tale

Short films showing are:

A Million Waves

Awen

Woza

Shape qui Rit

Masa

The Edge of North

Sea Lone

Secret Waves

Welcome to Raglan

Night Rose

The Scramble Gamble

Left in Lagos

Blackboy

Visit

Zion's Gate

Go to <http://www.wavescapefestival.com/2017-films/> to see the programme, synopses and trailers!

Go here to book tickets.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>