

Agri's Got Talent announces Top 10 finalists for 2018

Agri's Got Talent - a social upliftment skills programme for agricultural workers in the fruit and wine industries sponsored by Hortgro and the Vinpro Foundation, as well as the Western Cape Department of Agriculture - together with celebrity Frieda van den Heever has announced its Top Ten contestants for 2018. The Agri's Got Talent team will be visiting the ten finalists during the month of July in preparation for the competition which culminates in a gala evening on 3 August 2018.

Image via Agri's Got Talent Facebook

The top 10 finalists include:

1. Tersia Greenwald (Diemersfontein, Wellington)
2. Gert Olivier (Leeuwkop Boerdery, De Doorns)
3. Mariette Slingers (Wildekrans Landgoed, Botrivier)
4. Victor Fredericks (La Plaisante, Wolseley)
5. Chantel Hess (Boomerang Farm, Grabouw)
6. Mariska Jaars (LHB Boerdery, Worcester)
7. Jonren Jansen (Dutoit Vrugte, Ceres)
8. Maxine Barbers (Meerlust Farm, De Doorns)
9. Bredwyn van Wyk (Esselfontein Boerdery, Ceres)
10. Julia Cupido (Oakdene, Wellington)

Connect with the Agri's Got Talent via its website or Facebook.

Agri's Got Talent is a singing competition and life skills programme for agricultural workers in the fruit and wine industries. The South African Table Grape Industry (SATI) sponsors the aftercare programme.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>