

Plastics SA hires new chairman for 2019

Plastics SA has appointed Mxolisi Khutama as its chairman for 2019. The appointment was announced at the company's Annual General Meeting that recently took place in Midrand.

Khutama, who is also currently the group executive of Rigid at Nampak Packaging, brings experience in operations, business development, and administration to his role as chairman.

He replaces Bernhard Mahl, who will remain in the company as deputy chairman.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>