

New appointments at General Post Commercials Division

General Post welcomes Melanie Jankes-Golden and Gareth James to our Commercials Division team.

Melanie is a talented editor, accomplished in both the commercial and long form editing arenas.

Melanie has recently joined General Post's Commercials Division and is eager to get back into the commercials game, while still taking on some long form work.

Gareth started his career in the film and television industry working as an assistant editor at See Spot Run. After two years in that position, he was promoted to editor and spent a further four years working at the company in that capacity. The experience that he gained at See Spot Run set Gareth on the path to becoming the well rounded professional that he is today.

Gareth is equally comfortable in Avid or FCP.
