

Mall and Retail Indaba set for Sandton in June

The third annual Mall and Retail Indaba for shopping centre and retail managers and marketers will be held at the Balalaika Protea Hotel in Sandton on 13 and 14 June 2018. The two-day conference will explore the challenges and trends impacting mall and retail management and marketing, offering delegates advice and guidance from more than 12 industry leaders.

Anthony Stokes speaking at a previous Mall & Retail Indaba

Event organisers Cadek Media describes the Indaba as "a must-attend event for anyone involved in the management, operations and marketing of malls and retail shops, convenience and community shopping centres and related retail spaces".

The agenda includes topics such as Shopping Centre Overview, Retail Space Trends, Opportunities, Maximising Profits by Managing Smarter, Mall Marketing Ideas and Practices, Centre Management and Logistics as well as references to Malls of the Future.

Speakers include well-known personalities in the retail industry like Darren Katz (Cushman & Wakefield Excellerate), Belinda Clur (Clur Research International), Venessa Fourie (Purple Plumm), Adrian Morris (Design Partnership), Kim Homan (Mall Space Management), Ros Netto (Truth) and various others.

The programme and tickets are available online. Bookings can also be made directly with Cadek Media on Tel: +27 21 854 4700.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>