

Toni Ukachukwu named ABTA regional manager in Nigeria

Travel and tourism management professional Toni Ukachukwu has been appointed as the African Business Travel Association's (ABTA) new regional manager in Nigeria. Ukachukwu has accrued more than 10 years' experience in the international travel and tourism industry.

He has provided strategic turnaround and people leadership for leading tourism and aviation businesses in emerging markets throughout his career. He is also the publisher of Aviators Africa magazine and is the founder of Aviators Africa Academy, a social enterprise aimed at inspiring the next generation in aviation and aerospace in Africa.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>