

SA's Got Talent finale

The SA's Got Talent finale took place on 9 November 2014 at the Soweto Theatre in Johannesburg.

All six acts competing for the grand prize of R250,000 and the title of being Mzansi's most talented, came out in full force last night. The top six acts were narrowed down to the final three contestants which consisted of Tholwana Mohale from Steinkopf, Freeze Frame from Kempton Park and Joe Fredericks from Brakpan. In a nail-biting announcement, Joe was ousted leaving Freeze Frame and Tholwana holding thumbs, waiting anxiously to hear their fate. Tholwana was left speechless when her name was read out by the show's host, Tats Nkonzo, as she was announced as the winner. Not only is this the first SA's Got Talent winner from the Northern Cape, she is also the very first to make it through to the finale.
