

See: Toyota Europe reveals the C-HR GR Sport

Toyota Motors Europe has unveiled the C-HR GR Sport inspired by its performance-focused GR models. The model, first launched in 2016 has had an impact on the C-SUV segment, recording a sale of 120,000 units in its first year Europe. The 2021 model will feature GR Sport features both on the interior and exterior, enhanced driving dynamics and improved equipment specification that also includes privacy glass, smart entry, LED high beam headlamps and auto-fold door mirrors.

The Toyota C-HR GR Sport is currently available for European markets.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>