

Cisco appoints Hani Raad

Cisco has selected Hani Raad as its general manager for the west region in the Middle East.

Raad will lead Cisco's digital transformation initiatives and will work closely with its partner ecosystem in his new role.

Raad will also be responsible for leveraging Cisco's portfolio of solutions and work to strengthen collaboration with governments and Cisco's partner networks.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>