

Yoco launches in South Africa

Yoco announced the launch of its integrated card payment and point-of-sale solution for small and medium-sized businesses (SMEs). The official launch of Yoco in October 2015 follows a successful beta programme, which included over 500 merchants actively transacting on the platform and growing in double-digits every month.

The dynamic technopreneur founding team behind Yoco consists of Katlego Maphai (managing director), Carl Wazen (commercial director), Bradley Wattrus (risk and compliance director) and Lungisa Matshoba (technology and product director).
