Mall of Africa to use KaChing

The Mall of Africa has utilised KaChing to enable its customers to pay for parking.

KaChing allows parking customers to use flexible payment options such as pre-pay, top up and credit card payment to securely pay for their parking.

The system uses automatic number plate recognition cameras and smartphone app technology to make it possible for people to pay without the use of a ticket or tangible money.

For more, visit: https://www.bizcommunity.com