

SA films, Yesterday and Red Dust to screen at Toronto

Chief Executive of Videovision Entertainment, Anant Singh has announced that the company's recently completed films, Yesterday and Red Dust have been selected for the prestigious 29th annual Toronto International Film Festival which takes place from 9 to 18 September 2004. Both films will be presented at special screenings at the Festival. This marks the first time that two South African films will be afforded high profile slots within the Festival programme.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>