

SAPICS appoints association president

Mungo Park has been appointed as the association president for the supply chain community of South Africa, SAPICS. Park's role will include building on the efficiency of supply chain management, operations and education. Colin Seftel and Richard dos Santos have also been appointed as strategic managers.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>