

Defy records production of 12th million appliance

Defy recently recorded the production of its 12th million electrical cooking appliance.

In light of national water shortages and increased eco-consciousness, Defy has been also working to find ways for its products to use less electricity and water.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>