

Heineken SA makes two new appointments

Brewing company Heineken South Africa added two more personnel to its management team. Gerrit van Loo joins the company as its new managing director, while Mandisi Feni was appointed as the new HR director.

Van Loo formerly led Heineken Ethiopia and Heineken Ireland as MD. He holds a bachelor's degree in economics and master's degree in law from Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam (VU Amsterdam).

Feni joins Heineken SA from Japanese motor manufacturer Toyota, where he held the position of head of HR operations. He holds a B.SocSci degree in industrial psychology and a postgraduate diploma in management from the University of Cape Town (UCT).

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>