

Kalinda nominated for International African Woman of the Year Award

Managing director and co-founder of Africommunications Group, Mimi Kalinda, has been nominated as one of eight finalists for the International African Woman of the Year Award. This category forms part of the Women4Africa Awards 2016 conducted in the United Kingdom.

Kalinda's career history involves working with MTV, being the Africa lead for FleishmanHillard as well as managing accounts such as African Innovation Foundation.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>