

Africa Communications Media Group appoints Nonye Omotola

PR firm Africa Communications Media Group (ACG) has appointed Nonye Omotola as its new managing director. Omotola replaces ACG co-founder Mimi Kalinda, who is taking on the CEO role.

The new appointee is a communications and brand specialist with more than 15 years' strategic brand experience gained in the UK, South Africa, and Nigeria. Omotola was also previously Vuma Reputation Management's business director for Africa.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>