Customers who spent R3,999 or more on any AEG appliance at Game, between November and January, could enter into a draw to win one of 100 Game vouchers valued at R2,000 each, or the main prize – a Polo Vivo car valued at R200,000.

The prize car was officially presented to a delighted Siyamankela Matshisi at Game Canal Walk on Friday, 1 March.

Handing over the keys, Game Canal Walk store manager Nizaam Dramat said he was so excited that the winner was from Cape Town, as the competition was a national one. "We wish Mr. Matshisi many safe miles of driving with his new wheels, and we hope that this prize opens many doors of opportunity for him."

Michelle Morricks, Marketing Manager for AEG, said the competition had been a huge success and they were proud to have partnered with Game. "We had over 2,000 people entering. The selection of the voucher winners was done randomly, while the car winner was chosen by an accredited auditor. We are delighted to be able to share this excitement with Mr. Matshisi and wish him safe travelling and new adventures."
