

Matome Tloubatla appointed at Ithala SOC Limited

Ithala SOC Limited, the 100% owned subsidiary of Ithala Development Finance Corporation, has appointed Matome Tloubatla as its new head of credit and collections. Tloubatla brings with him a wealth of experience which spans 12 years in the banking and financial services industry.

Tloubatla holds a UNISA bachelor of commerce degree, a Regent Business School master's in business administration (MBA) as well as an international business and leadership management programme from the Shanghai University of International Business and Economics (SUIBE). His former employment includes senior positions at ABSA Bank and Platreef Resources as well as at government owned entities like the LEDA (Limpopo Economic Development Agency) and DBSA (Development Bank of Southern Africa).

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>