

Tsebo Solutions Group and others celebrate Rustlers Valley Farm harvest

Tsebo Solutions Group, Earthrise Trust, the Naledi Farmers Cooperative along with members of the Naledi Village community celebrated the second harvest of the Rustlers Valley Farm in the Free State on 7 July 2018, the UN's International Day of Cooperatives. Five years ago, the Earthrise Trust acquired the Rustlers Valley Farm and earmarked the land to develop an integrated community-based partnership approach to building sustainable rural communities.

Tsebo Solutions Group joined the Earthrise Trust and members of the Naledi Farmers' Cooperative to promote social entrepreneurship, eradicate poverty, increase food security and encourage skills development through its visionary approach to community upliftment.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>