

Families compete in the Spur Secret Tribe Cook-Off

The Silwood School of Cookery in Cape Town recently hosted the 2018 Spur Secret Tribe Cook-Off. The competition saw 15 family teams from across Cape Town competitively cook against each as they created gourmet boerie roll and flapjacks.

The teams were made up of a variety of pairs, mom-and-son, mom-and-daughter, father-and-son and aunt-and-niece. The event is part of a competition for members of Spur's Secret Tribe, a club for kids aged 12 years and younger.
