MTN signs partnership with Cisco Jasper

MTN has signed a partnership with Cisco Jasper to allow its business customers in Africa to deliver Internet of Things (IoT) services worldwide.

The partnership makes MTN the first mobile operator in South Africa to utilise the Cisco Jasper Control Center.

MTN recognises a demand for the control centre platform across all markets, particularly in telematics/vehicle diagnostics, vehicle tracking, building security/automation, and logistics.

For more, visit: https://www.bizcommunity.com