

Joburg Film Festival Content Series: Shamilla Miller

The Joburg Film Festival, powered by Multichoice, is an annual six-day festival, running from Tuesday, 31 January - Sunday, 5 February 2023, that showcases the best in global cinema and celebrates African cinematic excellence.

Now in its fifth year, Joburg Film Festival, powered by Multichoice, aims to be Africa's Premier film festival by showcasing 60 expertly curated commercial and author-driven narrative films including animation, documentaries, and features. Sipho Ngwenya who is the content operations senior manager at MultiChoice, sat down with some of Africa's most loved storytellers in a one-on-one conversation, unpacking their journey and contribution in the film industry.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>