On Thursday 2 May, Rassie Erasmus received an honorary doctorate from the North-West University (NWU) where he was joined by his national captain, Siya Kolisi.

The graduation ceremony was followed by a celebration event, where the Bok skipper outlined what distinguishes Rassie as coach and a person like few others.

In the video Siya explains:

- How Rassie guided him from “naughty” schoolboy, to national captain;
- How Rassie made the Springbok jersey special again;
- How his transparent approach shaped the Springboks’ winning culture and;
- His admiration for his coach.
