

Protea Hotels by Marriott signs second hotel in Ghana, a brand first in Accra

Protea Hotels by Marriott has announced its second hotel signing in Ghana - the Protea Hotel by Marriott Accra, Kotoka Airport; a brand first in the capital city of Accra. Owned by Baobab Hotels & Resorts, which is a subsidiary of the Yamusah Group, the hotel will be located in the airport residential area of Accra and will be in close proximity to key diplomatic, government and commercial nodes.

Image Supplied.

The hotel will be a 17-story, 200-room accommodation offering a restaurant, a lobby bar and lounge, small conference and meeting facilities; an aircrew lounge, a gymnasium and a roof-top pool bar and lounge with uninterrupted views of the city.

Strategically planted, the hotel will be ideal for business and leisure travellers, as well as airline crew and the local community.

"Continuing economic growth in Africa is driving greater investment in the continent, and Ghana is proving to be particularly attractive as an investment destination.

Protea Hotels by Marriott, is one of Africa's most well-established hotel brands and we are delighted to debut the brand in the bustling and dynamic capital city of Accra.

"The hotel will meet the rising demand for quality lodging in the city, catering to both the business as well as the leisure traveller," said Volker Heiden, vice president Protea Hotels by Marriott, Marriott International, Middle East and Africa.

According to Zibrim Yamusah, president and CEO of The Yamusah Group: "We are pleased to partner with Marriott International to bring the Protea Hotels by Marriott brand to Accra. The brand's strong regional equity and awareness coupled with the global distribution of Marriott International and the strength of its loyalty program, we believe, are a powerful combination that will help position the hotel and drive business."

Protea Hotel by Marriott Accra Kotoka Airport is expected to open by end of 2019.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>