

Hybrid AFI Fashion Week set for Joburg this October

AFI Fashion Week Joburg 2021 is set to take place as a hybrid event on 29 and 30 October 2021 at the recently launched Alto 234, Africa's highest urban bar on the 57th floor at the Leonardo building in Sandton.

Source: AFI

AFI stated that this year's theme 'Be You, Be Truly African' will celebrate all the unique and multifaceted expressions of being African in a globalised world.

"In coming together, after a long period of isolation, we are presenting a renewed outlook on who we are and what makes us unique. Driven by lifestyle and fashion, the emerging and established designers will showcase their latest collections, having reimagined new trends to complement the new way of living," AFI said.

Guests can expect an expressive blend of fashion, cuisine, cocktails, live music and a 360-degree view of the city of Johannesburg. In-person and virtual guests can Shop the Runway with House of Nala, which has curated offerings from pan-African ready-to-wear and luxury brands. The Shop the Runway experience will travel to Durban and Cape Town, bringing fashion enthusiasts African luxury fashion to their cities.

PlatAfrica jewellery design competition winners revealed for 2020

17 Nov 2020

Growing on the success of last year's event, AFI will again partner with Anglo American Platinum to showcase this year's PlatAfrica Jewellery Design and Manufacture Competition finalists as part of AFI Fashion Week Joburg 2021.

Visit www.africanfashioninternational.com to book your spot online or in person. In-person tickets are for sale and extremely limited.