Movie making has changed dramatically in the past decade, as Ronnie Apteker, the energetic founder of Internet Solutions and now a keen filmmaker, can attest.

Apteker is currently involved in shooting Material, a film that loosely documents the life of medical doctor turned comedian Riaad Moosa.

The production is using the latest digital technology. There's even a "data wrangler" on set, in the form of one Chris Harvey, who ensures the smooth operation of the tech.
